

On April 14, 2025, Clint A. Barr was sworn in to serve as Harrison County Auditor, after being appointed by the Harrison County Republican Central Committee to fill the unexpired term of Allison M. Anderson. Clint is a life-long resident of Harrison County and owns and operates Clark-Kirkland-Barr Funeral Home, along with his wife, Alice and daughter, Joyce. Their son Jacob, daughter-in-law, Allie, and future son-in-law, Tucker Peters, complete the family. The Barr family also owns and operates CAJJBarr Farms.

In addition to operating his businesses, the newly appointed Auditor has served as a Cadiz Township Trustee for fourteen years as well as serving on the Cadiz Union Cemetery Board and Silver Spade Ambulance District Board. He has also been part of many community organizations over the years, including the Harrison County Fair Board, Cadiz Lions Club, Sally Buffalo Park Board, Cadiz Presbyterian Church, Cadiz Eagles #2162, Jewett Sportsman Club, Harrison County Chapter of the National Wild Turkey Federation, Ohio Valley Recreation Club, Cadiz Baseball Association, Harrison Lodge #219 F&AM and Harrison County Dancing with the Stars. Clint was honored as Community Member of the Year by the Cadiz Business Association in 2024 and his business, Clark-Kirkland-Barr Funeral Home, was the Harrison County Chamber of Commerce Business of the Year in 2023.

Clint is honored to accept the appointment as Harrison County Auditor and looks forward to meeting county landowners as well as guiding the functions of the office to better serve all Harrison County residents.
